Dearest Clara and Rusty -

Thank you so much for your nice long newsy letter from Sarasota. Your over-smart sister did not choose to remember her nephew Bob Barnes nor all the psychiatric nurses and Aides. She felt so free that she did not keep up her medication with the end result that was costly and painful. Told Bob it takes only three weeks to get the medication out of the bloodstream and three times as long to build it up again.
I am demigred on a new one Amityl (?). Had to quit my job work before last and have been making sure progress since then. I started hunting after the first weekend. The Bureau of Internal Revenue put together my tax statement and New York took the state tax. I might eventually get some back but am not counting on it.

In the meantime I have applied for Unemployment and have two of the necessary three weeks waiting period behind me. I have read the classified ads avidly and have none in those agencies. I wish your speed in typing. I am going to check three things - one as a Motel maid, near home. That and a job not requiring typing such as a receptionist or clerk in a
